

ASD Friendly

Sharing experiences of everyday life with our ASD children

Issue 19 June 2010

Kids Newsletter

Competition!!

Can you make a model out of play dough?
Anything you want and ask mummy or daddy to photograph it so other little boys and girls can see it.

Can you spot all 8 differences in the 2 pictures below?

Can you work this out?

I have 5 apples and 10 friends. I want to give them all a bit of apple.

How much apple can they have each?

Write in...
What is your favourite TV show?
And why?

Competition!!

Imagine your the head teacher of your school for one day.

You are allowed to make one new rule.

What rule would you invent to make life easier for students with Autism and Aspergers?

Top 3 rules will be posted in next months edition of the magazine

Did you know...

The left side of your body is controlled by the right side of your brain while the right side of your body is controlled by the left side of your brain.

Kangaroos and Emus can't walk backwards.

Around 8% of children and 2% of adults have some kind of food allergy

The trickiest tongue twister in the English language is apparently "Sixth sick sheik's sixth sheep's sick". Give it a try and see for yourself.

Do you know any fun facts?

Ask mum or dad to PM your ideas, drawings and anything else to the editor Munchkin.

Readers recipe

Pizza Party

Buy a normal cheese and tomato pizza.

Before putting it in the oven to cook

Mark it in to 4 sections.

On one section add ham and mushroom

On the other section add red and green peppers

On another section add tomato and sweetcorn

On the other section add peperoni

4 yummy pizzas to try.

I bet you can't try a little bit of each section?

